

Justice For All

It's the End of the World...And I Feel Fine- Week 1

Steve Koelpin
November 10, 2013

- Your _____ day is more important than _____

John 5:28-29 Matthew 25:31-34

- You are saved by God's _____ and _____

JUSTIFIED

JUST as IF I'eD never _____.

John 3:36 Matthew 25:35-36

- You will be judged by your _____.
(_____)

James 2:14-19

- A deedless _____ is a _____ faith.

Matthew 25:37-40 Matthew 25:41-46

- Live today looking to _____.

GROWTH GROUP QUESTIONS

Matthew 25:31-46

Please remember to bring your Bible and this sheet with you!

Warm up Question

Where do you keep your most prized material possessions? Which one do you prize the most?

Into the Text

Is this story more of a prophecy or a parable? How so?

List the six actions Jesus will use as the basis of judgment? What kind of acts are these?

On what basis will Jesus be making his judgment on: Faith, actions or character? Does your answer fit with what the rest of Scripture says? Why or why not?

What does this section teach about Christian responsibility? Who are "the least of these brothers of mine"?

Scan chapters 23-25 of Matthew. In summary, what was Jesus teaching in these chapters?

God's Word for my Daily Life

How do you react to the statement, "You will be judged by your deeds."?

At this point in your life, with whom in this story can you identify? The sheep? The goats? "One of the least of these"?

Relate a time when you have been hurting or in need? Who reached out to you?

If Jesus were to come today and evaluate your life, how well would he say you have "cared for him"? Explain your answer.

If someone approached you and argued that this passage from Matthew clearly states that we get to heaven by our own good works, how would you respond?

Give practical, everyday examples of how we can fulfill the six actions Jesus describes in this section.